Albert Whitman. 1 Cloth(s), 2009. hard. Book Condition: New. What if the beautiful princess had no castle and no fine clothes? And what if she realized that the man she loved wasn't a king or a prince? This witty original fairy tale for readers 7 to 9 turns the usual happily-ever-after ending upside down (though it ends just as happily) in telling the story of a princess who has no kingdom. All she has is a pony and cart and a red umbrella to keep her dry from the rain. Yet she made up for any lack of means in kindness, cleverness, and natural beauty qualities that make all the rich princes want to marry her, and fight over her (usually by flinging pastries). But it is a jester who helps her to find her kingdom at last. With illustrations by British artist Sarah Gibb in exquisite watercolors and delicately detailed ink silhouettes, the book looks almost like a Victorian puppet play, conveying both the humor and the enchantment of the story. "[The] dramatic silhouettes, done in pen and ink and color, are breathtaking in their detail, delightfully complementing this bright, stylish, and original fairy tale." Booklist (starred review) 32.
