The Wonder of Christmas is a four-week devotional guide that was originally written to enhance a local congregation's observance of Advent and Christmas. Now made available to a wider audience, the twenty-eight lessons direct readers toward a deeper appreciation of the event that stands behind our seasonal observances. Wonder and awe are appropriate reactions to the activity of an Almighty God, and The Wonder of Christmas aims at reintroducing people to those responses by contemplating the prophecies and events surrounding the birth of Jesus.
