

Dark World: The Surface Girl (Paperback)

By Kell Frillman

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Kell Frillman has done an excellent job of making the reader believe they are inside 16-year-old Ruby's head, following her journey in a future world fraught with suspense and heartbreak. This is a must-read for readers who enjoy Dystopian novels, and I can't wait for her to finish the next book! - Jennifer Redmile, author of the Morwitch series In the year 2078, sixteen-year-old Ruby lives in an underground complex designed to protect humanity from a planet that post-alien invasion, can no longer sustain life. While exploring abandoned passageways with her partner in crime, Ruby stumbles upon a lost little girl with no ID chip in her wrist who claims she is from Earth's surface. Submitting to her compulsion to protect this child, Ruby begins to question the validity of everything she had been brought up to believe in. Caught between the desire to be loyal to her loving parents and the desperate need to uncover the lies that surround her, Ruby fears that loyalty to one person she loves will inadvertently cause her to betray another. Stuck...
