Primitive men, the higher they rose in the animal scale of evolution, doubtless modulated their savage cries and discovered . . . singing! Curious to relate, birds sing; whereas the mammalia, for which so grand a future was in store, do not sing. It was necessary that man should appear on the stage of life before song . . . and subsequently music . . . were forthcoming. Music therefore is the most plastic, as well as the youngest, of the arts. Why is this Because music applies to two different arts based on sound, just as painting and engraving have their one common origin in drawing. Primary music, that which appeared simultaneously with the human race itself, consists of two elements: melody and rhythm. It held sway throughout Europe up to the time of the Middle Ages and still reigns throughout both the Near and the Far East.
