Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual for the Royal Army Medical Corps, Vol. 1 The soldiers by whom this duty is performed are designated Stretcher Bearers, more briefly Bearers, and the unit of this organisation is called a Bearer Company. They are, moreover, charged with the attendance on the sick further to the rear: in sick convoys, hospital trains, c., to stationary field hospitals or general hospitals on the lines of communication to the base. 4. The duties of bearers are in the first place to search for and tend the wounded, by administering to them water or stimulants, by arresting bleeding, by applying splints or a temporary dressing if the nature of the case so require, and by removing them, their arms and accoutrements, to a place of safety; and secondly, to pitch tents and hospital marquees, to cook for the wounded, and to find guards for the wagons on the line of march and in camp. 5. To enable the men of the Royal Army Medical Corps to undertake even the most elementary of these duties, either in hospitals or in the field, it follows as a matter of necessity that they must undergo a course of technical training. 6. This technical training will commence as soon as the recruit has gone through a short preliminary training in squad and company drill, and the modified course of musketry instruction prescribed by the King's Regulations. 7. The technical training will, as a general rule, occupy about three months. 2. Anatomical and Physiological Outlines. 8. The human body is made up of: -(1)the skeleton or bony framework with its joints; (2)the muscles, which make every movement; (3)the nervous system, which...
