Such records will also make it possible to obtain facts for studies in retardation, rapid progress and other important school questions. Items. There were two perfect records for attendance during October, 1912, --Miss James second grade at the Winthrop School and Miss Stone s seventh grade at the Centre. A table in theAppendix shows that Everett registered 1597 pupils who either entered or left the city schools during the year or were transferred from one school to another within the city. The past year establishes a new record for changes in the teaching force. There were thirty-one withdrawals, thirty-six appointments, and fifteen transfers. Twelve of the thirty-one resigned to accept positions elsewhere at increased salaries. Schools opened in September with twenty-five new teachers and forty new to their positions--about one-fifth the total number. The first week in June, the teachers...
