Now can t ye set to and save my outbuildings from taking fire? Harkee, squire, replied Joe, dropping his voice to a confidential pitch, while at the same time leading his interlocutor aside out of hearing. The sledges and what they hold is our prize, captivated from the British in a fair fight, yet we ll get around that if you ll say the right word. And what s that? queried the squire. You know as well as I what t is. The sledges are yours, and we ll do our prettiest to prevent the stables and cribs from catching, if you ll but say what I want said as to Miss Janice. I d see her in her grave first. Some of you fellows start those sleighs and sledges up the road! shouted Bagby. Now then, have you got that officer ready? He ain t ready, but we is, cap, answered one of the little group about the prisoner. Up with him, then! ordered Bagby. See-saw s the word: down goes Mercer, up goes a bloody-back. At the command, half a dozen men pulled on a rope which had been passed over the bough of a tree, and the young subaltern was swung clear of the ground. He struggled so fiercely for a moment that the cords which bound his wrists parted and he was able to clutch the rope above his head in a desperate attempt to save himself. It was useless, for instantly two rifles were levelled and two bullets sent through him; his hands relaxing, he hung limply, save for a slight muscular quiver. If your friends, the...
