

The Biblical Truth about America's Death Penalty (Paperback)

By Dale S. Recinella

University Press of New England, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. While secular support for capital punishment in America seems to be waning, religious conservatives, particularly in the Bible belt, remain staunch advocates of the death penalty, citing biblical law and practice to defend government-sanctioned killing. Dale S. Recinella compares biblical teaching about the death penalty, including such passages as eye for eye, tooth for tooth, life for life, with the nation's current system of capital punishment, and offers persuasive arguments for a faith-based moratorium on -- and eventual abolition of -- executions. Framing his careful and incisive analysis as a legal brief to those who believe the Bible mandates the ultimate punishment, the author addresses two critical areas of inquiry: what do the scriptures tell us about who is deserving of death and who has the authority to kill, and what do they tell us about the required standards for execution and the plight of victims families. Recinella's examination of the Hebrew Torah, or Christian Pentateuch, and the Talmud reveals that the biblical death penalty was not a simple system of swift retribution, but a complex and practical set of laws...
