Highland Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Magic Happens at Christmas Three modern women are sent back in Time to ensure their futures are bright. Cynical after her louse of an (ex)boyfriend took the money she thought she was donating to a just cause, Maggie Maguire doesn t trust herself to make good decisions. Even when she dreams of nineteenth century Ireland s struggle for independence, she resists believing in it, but then Finn O Byrne, Prince of the Fae, gives her a wee nudge. Finn is used to assisting mortals on their way. He s done it for centuries, but he s never allowed human emotion to penetrate the icy crystal barrier he s erected around himself. that is, until a blue-eyed, brunette beauty enters his world and melts his heart. Elizabeth Shelton is a high-powered stockbroker who has little sympathy for those who don t break through the glass ceiling. When her dream transports her to Victorian England and a duke s castle, she naturally thinks she s a guest. Instead, she finds she s a serving wench. She tries to convince the duke of her proper status, but he has more lecherous thoughts in mind. Broc Hadon, the evil warlock duke s good twin, has lots of practice in rescuing damsels from his brother s clutches. He s lost track of the number over time. As Elizabeth slowly starts to understand the plight of servants and her humbling station in this life, Broc realizes he has a void in his own life to fill.with Elizabeth. After her husband s untimely death in Afghanistan, Caroline Campbell withdraws from society, preferring to keep her nose stuck in history books, where the outcomes of events are certain. When her dream sends...
