

Counsel from the Cross: Connecting Broken People to the Love of Christ (Paperback)

By Elyse M. Fitzpatrick, Dennis E. Johnson

CROSSWAY BOOKS, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Redesign. Language: English . Brand New Book. Given the evermore apparent failure of modern psychotherapies and a growing discomfort with pharmacological strategies, many churches are reaffirming the sufficiency and power of the Scriptures to change lives. To aid churches in ministering to broken and hurting people, the authors of Counsel from the Cross present a counseling model based on Scripture and powered by the work of the wonderful counselor, Jesus Christ. Through careful exegesis and helpful case studies, they demonstrate how to provide consistently biblical, gospel-centered counseling and explain why it is important to do so. The authors combined backgrounds--one, a woman trained in biblical counseling and the other, a male professor of practical theology--bring balance to this work, making it relevant for those who counsel as part of pastoral ministry and for all involved in mentoring or discipleship.

Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.
