Excerpt from Hymns Composed on Various Subjects: With the Author's Experience, the Supplement and Appendix As I had the happiness of being born of believing parents, I imbibed the sound doctrines of the gospel from my infancy; nor was I without touches of heart, checks of conscience, and meltings of affections, by the secret strivings of God's Spirit with me while very young: but the impressions were not deep, nor the influences lasting, being frequently defaced and quenched by the vanities and vices of childhood and youth. About the twenty-first year of my age I began to be under great anxiety concerning my soul. The spirit of bondage distressed me sore though I endeavoured (as I believe most under legal convictions do) to commend myself to God's favour by amendment of life, virtuous resolutions, more rectitude, and a strict attendance on religious ordinances. I strove to subdue my flesh by fasting, and other rigorous acts of penance and mortification; and whenever I was captivated by its lusts (which indeed was often the case) I endeavoured to reconcile myself again to God by sorrow for my faults which, if attended with tears I hoped would pass as current coin with heaven and then I judged myself whole again, and to stand on equal terms with my foes, till the next fall, which generally succeeded in a short time. In this uneasy restless round of sinning and repeating, working and dreading, I went on for above seven years when, a great calamity befell me (in which I was. A. Mote.
